

This bust of a Vietnam veteran was originally part of the Rutland County Vietnam Memorial. It was begun in the 1980's by a Vietnam veteran; it was finished and set in place at the Rutland City Main Street Park in 2000. Because the marble was flawed and damaged in the ensuing years, a new monument was completed by Don Raney and dedicated in 2017. The bust of the original was saved, and it now has a home in the West Rutland American Legion.
